

CRADDOCK COTTAGE

EST. 1896

130 MAGNOLIA ROAD • PINEHURST

Craddock is a one and a half story frame cottage with a gable-end façade and a front porch with a turned balustrade.

Built in the second season, Craddock was the home of Edith Ware Sise, mother of Gertrude Sise Tufts, Leonard Tufts' wife. When Gertrude passed away, her son Albert Sise Tufts inherited the cottage. Originally the cottage had four rooms. There has been an addition on the north end.

